Plus, receive a signature experience of your choice – enjoy Summer Sightseeing at the Lake Louise Gondola, explore Vancouver's Granville Island Market, join Jasper's Warrior Women cultural program, or enjoy a traditional medicine walk in Banff

You'll be taken on a breathtaking rail journey through the stunning scenery of the Sea to Sky Corridor. Travel onboard Rocky Mountaineer from the coastal city of Vancouver to the resort town of Whistler. Enjoy breathtaking and varied scenery, from the river canyons and lush farmland of the Pemberton Valley, through the desert-like conditions of the Fraser Canyon, to rolling hills and vast ranchlands of the Cariboo Plateau before arriving in the majestic Canadian Rockies and Jasper National Park.

From Jasper you experience one of the most scenic drives in the world along the Icefields Parkway to Lake Louise. En-route, stop at the Columbia Icefield, where you will ride on an Ice Explorer to the middle of the Athabasca Glacier.

From Lake Louise, a half-day tour takes you into Yoho National Park to view some of its natural wonders. Among the attractions are the Spiral Tunnels, Emerald Lake and a natural rock bridge that spans the Kicking Horse River before arriving in Banff.

In each of the mountain tours of Jasper, Lake Louise and Banff, you will have two night stays in each to truly immerse yourself in the majestic beauty of the Canadian Rockies.

In Western Canada, rail travel and Fairmont properties have always gone hand in hand. On this 14 day itinerary, you will experience the timeless luxury of the Fairmont properties in Vancouver, Jasper, Lake Louise and Banff.

The Fairmont Hotel Vancouver is known as the 'Castle in the City', symbolizing timeless elegance and luxury since 1939. Holding a prime downtown location, minutes away from Vancouver's biggest attractions including Granville Island, Robson Street shopping, Stanley Park Seawall, Vancouver Aquarium, Gastown, and Science World.

The Fairmont Jasper Park Lodge is a beacon of rustic-themed elegance. The 283-hectare (700-acre) collection of chandelier-trimmed cabins, cedar chalets and exceptional amenities that have made this gem a beloved Fairmont vacation spot for royalty and regular folks alike.

Hold up a photo of a turquoise glacier lake surrounded by mountains, and most Canadians will assume it was taken at Lake Louise. This 4.8km long glacial lake's jewel-toned water is a postcard staple, as is the magnificent Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise that stands on its northeastern shore.

The Fairmont Banff Springs, also known as the "Castle in the Rockies", is nestled in the heart of Banff National Park. This magnificent Scottish baronial castle-style hotel and spa stands in the heart of Banff surrounded by majestic mountain beauty, and is only 1 kilometre from Banff town centre.

Exceptional service and adventurous spirit are longstanding traditions at both the Fairmont properties and Rocky Mountaineer and they await you on this awe-inspiring itinerary.

Day

Rocky Mountaineer: Quesnel Jasper

Early in the morning, your journey continues eastward to the majestic Canadian Rockies and Jasper National Park. From Quesnel, Rocky Mountaineer follows the Fraser River north to the town of Prince George, then travels east through the forests of northern British Columbia, home to plentiful wildlife, including a large population of moose, caribou and bears. Upon entering the Rocky Mountain Trench, you are surrounded by the steeply rising Rocky Mountains to the north and the Cariboo Mountains to the south. You'll continue climbing past Mount Robson, at 3,954 metres (12,972 feet), the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, through Yellowhead Pass into the province of Alberta. Your rail journey ends on arrival in Jasper in the evening.

Day 6

Jasper Lake Louise

Travel from Jasper to Lake Louise via one of the most scenic highways in the world, the Icefields Parkway. Bow Lake, the Columbia Icefield, Glacier Skywalk, and Athabasca Falls are among the day's highlights. The Columbia Icefield is one of the largest accumulations of ice south of the Arctic Circle and one of the most accessible icefields in North America. Here you will ride on an Ice Explorer to the middle of the Athabasca Glacier to learn about its geological features. Lunch is provided at the Columbia Icefield Glacier Discovery Centre. Afterwards, a brief stop will be made at Bow Lake before arriving in Lake Louise in the late afternoon.

Note: Spring season departures feature adjusted inclusions due to seasonality. The Icefields Parkway Tour will be replaced with a direct transfer between Jasper and Lake Louise, as Columbia Icefield attractions operate seasonally.

Day 10

Rocky Mountaineer: Banff Kamloops

Departing early in the morning, travel onboard the Rocky Mountaineer from the mountain resort town of Banff to Kamloops, in the heart of the British Columbia Interior. Your journey takes you through ever-changing scenery as you travel between the iconic glacier and snow-capped peaks of the Canadian Rockies over mountain passes and through remarkable tunnels, along rocky lakeshores and across the ranchlands of the Interior. Today's highlights include the Continental Divide, the Spiral Tunnels, Kicking Horse Canyon, Rogers Pass and Craigellachie, where the last spike of the Canadian Pacific Railway was driven. You will arrive in Kamloops in the evening.

Overnight in Kamloops

Breakfast, Lunch

Day 11 Rocky Mountaineer: Kamloops Vancouver

Early in the morning, your journey continues west towards the Pacific Ocean and the coastal city of Vancouver. On today's journey, you will again see dramatic changes in scenery, from the desert-like environment of the B.C. Interior, through winding river canyons and pristine forests, to the Cascade and Coast Mountains and the lush green fields of the Fraser Valley. Highlights include the steep slopes and rock sheds along the Thompson River and the rushing waters of Hell's Gate in the Fraser Canyon. Your rail journey ends on arrival in Vancouver this evening.
