ITINERARY

Day 1

Indian Pacific: Depart Perth

Your afternoon begins with a welcome gathering, in celebration of the start of your journey across the country and along the world's longest stretch of straight railway track.

Spend a relaxed afternoon getting to know your fellow travellers after you board the Indian Pacific and pull away from Perth, leaving the Indian Ocean behind and cruising toward the Pacific. Tonight, a delectable dinner is served on board, featuring contemporary Australian cuisine with seasonal and regional flavours.

Overnight stay aboard The Indian Pacific

Day 2

Kalgoorlie & Cook

Awake to see the sunrise unfold across Australia's largest outback town, Kalgoorlie. This morning, delve into this mining town's fascinating past and present, with a visit to the region's gold-rush era, now modern-day, Super Pit mine. Decide how you want to explore Kalgoorlie on your choice of Off Train Experience, including morning refreshments.

Reboarding the train mid-morning for brunch, the remainder of the day is on board at your leisure. Sit back and enjoy the hospitality as you take in spectacular views of the seemingly endless expanse of the Nullarbor Plain. You'll cross borders and time zones, entering South Australia before dinner. Late evening, the train will pull into the almost-ghost-town of Cook for a nightcap, late-night bonfire and stargazing experience.

Overnight stay aboard Indian Pacific.

Breakfast, Dinner

Day 3

Barossa Valley

Spend the morning travelling through the pastoral lands and communities of remote South Australia as the Indian Pacific cruises past the Flinders Rangers, Spencer Gulf and the Adelaide Plains. Breakfast and lunch are both served on board.

Mid-afternoon, the train pulls into Long Plains, where you'll disembark and transfer in comfortable coaches for a short ride to the world-renowned, wine-producing region of the Barossa Valley. You'll spend the evening at Seppeltsfield Winery, delighting in a signature dining experience in the vintage cellar.

A traditional 'Firing of the Barrel' display is part of the evening, as well as a food and wine pairing curated by Executive Chef Owen Andrews, highlighting regional produce and traditional methods that reflect the story of the Barossa. Here, Platinum guests are also treated to a special 100-year-old vintage Tawny tasting experience.

After dinner, you'll return to the Indian Pacific, continuing your rail journey through the night.

Overnight stay aboard Indian Pacific.

Day 4

Broken Hill

During the night, the Indian Pacific crosses into New South Wales, arriving in the iconic outback city of Broken Hill, famously known as the Silver City. After breakfast, disembark and discover the character, history, and culture of this remarkable destination.

Guests can select from a range of immersive experiences. Learn about the region's mining legacy with a visit to the Miners' Memorial and the Sulphide Street Railway & Historical Museum, or descend underground on a guided tour of the historic Daydream Mine. Those with an interest in art can enjoy a creative paint-and-sip experience at the former studio of celebrated artist Pro Hart, while food enthusiasts can participate in a native ingredients masterclass and friendly cook-off led by Chef Lee Cecchin at The Old Salt Bush restaurant. For something uniquely local, join Shelita Buffet, the Queen of the Outback, for an entertaining tour through the town's colourful main street.

After returning to the train for lunch, relax as the landscapes of regional New South Wales roll past your window. This evening, enjoy a farewell dinner onboard and celebrate the final night of your transcontinental rail adventure with fellow travellers.

Day 5

Blue Mountains & Sydney

The final day of your journey begins amid the breathtaking scenery of the Blue Mountains, a World Heritage-listed region renowned for its dramatic sandstone escarpments, deep valleys, and eucalyptus forests. Following breakfast, say goodbye to the Indian Pacific and set out on your chosen Off Train Experience.

At Scenic World, guests can select from a variety of experiences, including soaring above the valley on the Scenic Skyway, travelling down into the rainforest via the Scenic Cableway, or riding the world's steepest passenger railway. Alternatively, enjoy a guided walk through the stunning natural surroundings or indulge in an elegant high tea at the historic Hydro Majestic Hotel, accompanied by panoramic mountain views.

To conclude the journey, transfer to a privately chartered New South Wales rail service, hosted by the Indian Pacific crew, for the final leg into Sydney Central Station. Guests who prefer an earlier arrival also have the option to remain aboard the Indian Pacific and continue directly into Sydney before lunchtime.
