Day 2 Colombo Galle Bentota Colombo

Begin your day with breakfast at the hotel before heading to Galle, approximately 2.5 hours away. Spend a day exploring the rich cultural and natural attractions of Galle and Bentota. Begin with a visit to the Galle Dutch Fort, Galle Museum, and Galle Lighthouse, experiencing the historical and scenic highlights of this coastal city. Continue to the Athukorala Tea Factory for an insightful tour and tea-tasting experience. In Bentota, embark on a Madu River Safari through lush mangroves and diverse birdlife, followed by a visit to the Turtle Hatchery Farm to learn about sea turtle conservation efforts and witness the release of baby turtles into the sea. Conclude the day by relaxing back at your hotel.

Galle offers a unique blend of history and natural beauty, from its UNESCO World Heritage site at the Dutch Fort to the picturesque Galle Lighthouse. The nearby Athukorala Tea Factory provides a taste of Sri Lanka's famous tea industry.

Bentota complements this with its serene river safaris and commitment to preserving marine life at the Turtle Hatchery. Together, these experiences offer a comprehensive look at the cultural heritage and ecological diversity of southern Sri Lanka.
