ITINERARY

Day

2

Madrid

Buffet breakfast at the hotel and enjoy a private city tour of Salamanca with local guide (3h) including tickets to the University.

The Old City of Salamanca has been a UNESCO World Heritage site since 1988. Stroll about the center of the baroque 18th-century Main Square (Plaza Mayor) and allow yourself to be seduced by its beauty and harmony.

Overnight stay in Salamanca at Abba Fonseca 4* or similar.

Breakfast

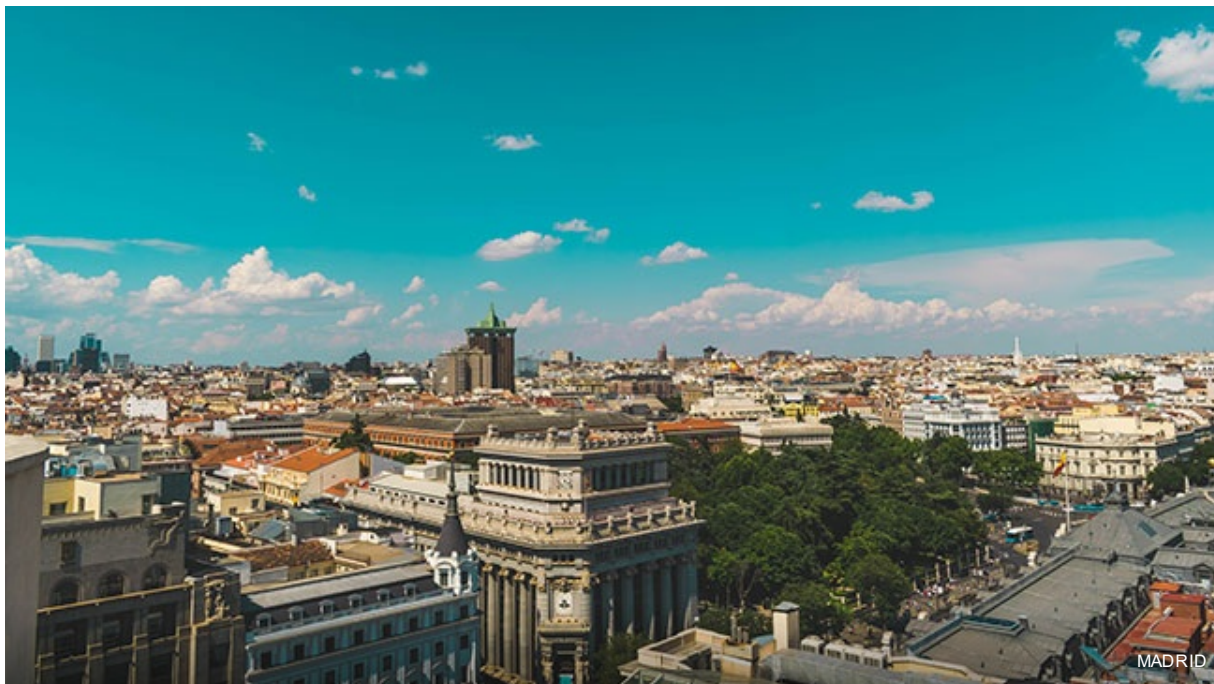

Madrid Segovia Salamanca

Meet your private chauffeur-guide in Madrid and begin your tour, heading to Segovia. The Old Town of Segovia and its Roman Aqueduct, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1985, serve as a testament to the power of the Roman Empire. Enjoy a private city tour of Segovia with a local guide (4 hours) and visit the Alcázar. For lunch, indulge in the traditional local dish of roasted suckling pig at one of the city's renowned restaurants.

Continue to the next UNESCO heritage city, Ávila, known for its city walls, which have been recognised by UNESCO since 1985. Ávila boasts an incredible wealth of heritage, including its 2.5 km long defensive wall, built by the Romans nearly a millennium ago. Take a private guided tour of Ávila (4 hours) with entrances to the walls. Enjoy some free time to explore the city before heading to Salamanca, where you will arrive by the end of the day.

Overnight stay in Salamanca at Abba Fonseca 4* or similar.

Salamanca Toledo

After a buffet breakfast at your hotel, depart for Toledo, one of Spain's most monument-rich cities. Known as the "City of Three Cultures," Toledo was home to Christians, Muslims, and Jews for centuries. Behind its ancient walls, the city preserves a wealth of artistic and cultural heritage, from churches and palaces to fortresses, mosques, and synagogues. The entire city feels like an open-air museum. Enjoy a private city tour of Toledo with a local guide (3 hours), including entrances to the Cathedral and Synagogue.

Overnight stay in Toledo at the Parador de Toledo or similar.

Breakfast

Day 4

Toledo

After a buffet breakfast at your hotel, enjoy a free day to explore and admire this museum-city at your own pace.

Overnight stay in Toledo at the Parador de Toledo or similar.

Breakfast
