Day 2 The Canal Saint Martin - PARIS and its famous sites

The morning begins with a leisurely cruise along the Canal Saint-Martin, passing through the heart of authentic Parisian neighbourhoods.

In the afternoon, a guided tour explores some of Paris' most significant landmarks, including Place de la République, the grand boulevards, Palais Garnier, Madeleine Church, Place Vendôme and the Louvre. From Palais-Royal, a stroll through the city's charming covered walkways reveals hidden gems. These historic passages not only serve as pedestrian shortcuts but also showcase luxury and elegance, with boutiques from Shiseido, Jean Paul Gaultier, Stella McCartney and more.

The day concludes with a return to the ship at Quai d'Austerlitz.

Day 3

Paris and the Saint-Germain-des-Prés district

Embark on a guided tour of the Saint-Germain-des-Prés district, a legendary area where history, architecture, art, and culture embody the soul of Paris. The journey begins by coach from the Trocadéro, passing along the Voie Triomphale, the Arc de Triomphe, the Champs-Élysées, and Place de la Concorde before arriving in Saint-Germain-des-Prés.

This charming neighbourhood has a village-like atmosphere. Highlights include the city's oldest church, dating back to 543, and the renowned Café de Flore, once a meeting place for intellectuals and artists such as Jean-Paul Sartre, Simone de Beauvoir and Pablo Picasso. The tour concludes with a return to the ship.

The afternoon features a scenic cruise along the Seine, offering stunning views of Paris' most iconic landmarks, including Île Saint-Louis, Île de la Cité with the majestic Notre Dame, the Louvre, Tuileries Garden, Pont Alexandre III, and, of course, the Eiffel Tower with its Trocadéro Gardens. The ship will dock at Quai de Grenelle.

This evening, a gala dinner and celebration await.
