ITINERARY

Day 1 Vancouver Revelstoke

Depart Vancouver from Canada Place in the morning and begin your journey through the stunning Fraser Valley, where rolling hills and lush landscapes set the tone for the day ahead. Continue into the heart of the Okanagan Valley, Canada's only desert—known for its warm climate, orchards and vineyards. Enjoy free time to explore the city and savour a lunch. Later, travel onward to the charming mountain town of Revelstoke, where you'll check in to your hotel and enjoy the evening at leisure to dine and soak up the peaceful alpine atmosphere.

Day 2 Revelstoke Banff

After breakfast, set off from Revelstoke in the morning, stopping at the historic Rogers Pass Summit before heading towards the stunning blue lakes of the Rockies. Enjoy a visit to the breathtaking Moraine Lake (seasonal), followed by lunch, and then continue to the iconic Lake Louise, where you'll have free time to wander and take in its natural beauty.

In the afternoon, enjoy a sightseeing tour of Banff, where you'll visit the famous Banff Avenue, Bow Falls and the Banff Springs Hotel. Later, choose to visit the Banff Gondola for panoramic views of the Rocky Mountains.

Check in to your hotel on Banff Avenue, where you can unwind with dinner, explore local shops or relax at the Banff Hot Springs. The evening is yours to discover the charming town of Banff, with your guide recommending the best places to dine according to your taste.

Day 3 Banff Valemount

Embark on a journey along the world-renowned Icefields Parkway. As you tour through the Columbia Icefields, you'll have the opportunity to visit another stunning lake and can opt to take part in the famous Ice Explorer Glacier Tour (additional cost). Continue to the charming town of Jasper, where you'll have free time to enjoy dinner. On the way, stop briefly for majestic views of Mount Robson, the tallest peak in the Canadian Rockies (weather & seasonal permitting). In the evening, check into your hotel in Valemount for a restful night.
