Embark on an unforgettable journey where timeless discovery meets unrivalled luxury. Your adventure begins in Alaska, as you sail aboard Regent Seven Seas Cruises, renowned for spacious all-suite living, personalised service, and every indulgence included.

Glide into the wild heart of Alaska, starting with a full day sailing alongside the mighty Hubbard Glacier. Witness one of the world's most active ice fields calve and roar, all from the comfort of generous decks or your private balcony. Immerse yourself in Alaska's frontier spirit on port calls to Sitka, Skagway and Juneau - each rich in Indigenous heritage, gold rush history, wildlife viewing and immersive excursions tailored to your interests. Continue south to Ketchikan, famous for soaring totem poles, vibrant fishing culture and lush emerald forests.

Return to serene days aboard as you cruise the scenic Inside Passage, where mist-cloaked islands, fjords and towering evergreens reveal nature at its most untamed. Your voyage concludes in Vancouver, a harbour city alive with culture, nature and spectacular mountain-backed skylines.

From Vancouver, your journey continues inland aboard the legendary Rocky Mountaineer in daylight. Settle into GoldLeaf Service - where panoramic dome windows, fine dining and immersive storytelling complement the unfolding drama of British Columbia's canyons, rivers and glacier-carved valleys. Venture deeper into the Canadian Rockies as you arrive in Lake Louise and Banff, surrounded by towering peaks and turquoise lakes that define Canada's alpine beauty.

Your journey comes to a close in Calgary, with time to explore before your onward travels. Seamlessly combining world-class cruising, iconic rail travel, and astonishing landscapes, this journey embodies the spirit of both Regent Seven Seas Cruises and Rocky Mountaineer - luxury without compromise, deeper exploration, and the freedom to experience the natural world in comfort, style and unforgettable clarity.

Day 1 Anchorage Embark cruise in Whittier

Transfer from Anchorage to Whittier to embark on Seven Seas Explorer, where your luxury suite awaits. Keep your binoculars handy to spot seals, otters and whales as you begin your journey. Whittier, the gateway to Prince William Sound, offers spectacular glacier cruises and kayaking in tranquil waters. Its unique “one-way-in” tunnel adds an extra touch of adventure, while nearby hiking trails and fascinating WWII history make it an ideal stop for both nature lovers and history enthusiasts.

Day 2 Regent Seven Seas Cruises: Cruising Hubbard Glacier

Sail into the icy grandeur of Hubbard Glacier—North America’s largest tidewater glacier—where towering blue ice walls stretch for miles and the thunderous roar of calving ice echoes across the water. From expansive Observation Decks or the comfort of your private balcony, enjoy uninterrupted views, wildlife spotting and warm hospitality as your ship glides through majestic fjords. This is the essence of Alaska’s wilderness: vast, powerful and utterly unforgettable.

Day 3

Regent Seven Seas Cruises: Sitka

Tracing its story from Indigenous Tlingit heritage through Russian rule and into American stewardship, Sitka is a fascinating blend of cultures set against a dramatic coastal backdrop. Wander past onion-domed churches, heritage sites and restored fortifications, or step into dense rainforest where moss-draped trees frame views of volcanic peaks. Wildlife thrives here — with bald eagles overhead, sea otters drifting in kelp forests and whales offshore. Sitka is an ideal balance of wild Alaska and richly layered history.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises: Skagway

Skagway is a living postcard of frontier Alaska, where clapboard storefronts, boardwalks and historic saloons recreate the energy of the Klondike Gold Rush. It was here that hopeful prospectors set out on the gruelling journey to the Yukon, and echoes of their adventure remain in every street corner. Choose to browse heritage precincts, learn tales of triumph and hardship, or ride the iconic White Pass & Yukon Route Railway — a spectacular ribbon of track carved into mountainsides, glaciers and waterfalls. This is the Alaska of pioneers and dreamers.

Day 5 Regent Seven Seas Cruises: Juneau

Accessible only by sea or air, Juneau offers a rare mix of rugged wilderness and relaxed capital-city life. Just outside town, towering mountains and vast icefields spill into fjords, while Mendenhall Glacier provides a dramatic reminder of nature's power and scale. In town, gold rush stories remain woven through colourful streets, while modern-day Alaska offers craft breweries, local seafood and Indigenous cultural experiences. With endless adventure on its doorstep, Juneau is a gateway to Alaska's wild heart.

Day 6 Regent Seven Seas Cruises: Ketchikan

Day 6 Regent Seven Seas Cruises: Ketchikan

Known as the first port of call for many travellers, Ketchikan welcomes guests with misty forests, towering totem poles and a working harbour where fishing boats still reign supreme. Explore Creek Street's historic boardwalks built above salmon-rich waters, encounter world-class Indigenous art at Totem Bight or Saxman Village, or head into Tongass National Forest — the world's largest temperate rainforest — for wildlife encounters and waterfall walks. From cultural storytelling to scenic fjords, Ketchikan captures Alaska's coastal spirit in every direction.

Day 7 Regent Seven Seas Cruises: Cruising The Inside Passage

Enjoy a day of culinary indulgence and refined relaxation at sea. Start with breakfast or lunch at La Veranda, with made-to-order omelettes, fresh pastries and ocean-view dining. In the evening, savour Italian classics at Sette Mari, French elegance at Chartreuse, or exotic flavours at Pacific Rim. For a more casual bite, visit Pool Grill for grilled favourites and frozen treats, or enjoy a perfectly brewed coffee and pastry at Coffee Connection. Prime 7 offers timeless luxury with succulent steaks and decadent desserts, ensuring every meal on board is an unforgettable experience.

Today, you can personalise your day by choosing your pre-selected tour from our Freedom of Choice options below.

Overnight in Vancouver at the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver

Freedom of Choice Options

- Granville Island Market Tour:

  Granville Island is Canada's second most-visited destination, behind Niagara Falls, and Vancouver's destination for lovers of food, art and culture. During the tour, guests eat their way through the world-famous Public Market and hear the intriguing stories, culture, and history behind the tasty creations. As the colourful market buzzes around you, step behind the scenes to experience a side that many never see — even the locals. Tuck into savory and sweet bites by renowned culinary artisans, and connect with their passion for food and heritage.

OR

- Stanley Park Bicycle Tour:

  Stanley Park is uniquely situated with incredibly scenic views of downtown Vancouver, the North Shore, the Lion's Gate Bridge, as well as English Bay and the West End. Weave down the pristine forest trails that criss-cross through the park, and receive incisive information about the amazing wilderness in the city. This is definitely more than just a ride in the park. You will walk or ride away with a deeper understanding of both Vancouver and its green treasure. An easy 12 km ride on dedicated bike trails. Tours always ride at a relaxed pace to take in the sights, so anyone with moderate fitness can easily do this ride!

OR

- Vancouver City Highlights Tour including Capilano Suspension Bridge:

  Explore the urban elements of downtown Vancouver and immerse yourself in the wilds of Vancouver's rugged North Shore. Combine the highlights of downtown Vancouver with a stop at Capilano Suspension Bridge Park. Drive by some of the most renowned sights including historic neighborhoods, scenic beaches, and a picturesque harbour and learn how Vancouver became the city it is today. Stops in Stanley Park feature Indigenous Peoples' Totem Poles, and spectacular views of the mountains and the Lions Gate Bridge. Take in the jaw-dropping 360-degree view of the city and beyond from Vancouver Lookout's Observation Deck, and wander through the charming farmer's market at Granville Island.
